

A Mistaken Marriage with Mr. CEO Novel

Chapter 31 To 35

Chapter 31 Amazing talent

Shen Lu did not answer.

Shen Qi seemed to have thought of something as she turned around and desperately pulled out his university textbooks from the box behind him. She held them up to Shen Lu as if she was offering a treasure: "Can you even understand these?"

Shen Lu's gaze landed on Shen Qi's university textbooks, and gently nodded his head.

Shen Qi was stunned!

How is this possible!?

Isn't this too heaven-defying?

Shen Qi rummaged through his bag, fortunately, this bag was made from the materials of a PU. She had been drenched so heavily, yet her phone was still safe and sound!

The heavens were helping him!

Shen Qi took out her phone, casually selected a game, and handed it over to Shen Lu, then taught him how to play while sitting to the side and watching Shen Lu play the game.

Something even more horrifying happened.

This was the first time Shen Lu played mobile games, but it was as if he had no teacher, and in just a few minutes, he managed to clear all of them!

Shen Qi felt that she was in a fantasy. She refused to admit defeat as she took her phone and started from the beginning.

It was a pity that she was killed after only three views!

How is this possible?

Unsatisfied, Shen Qi found several games for Shen Lu, and as long as she was taught the rules, he would instantly clear the level!

Shen Qi was already at a loss as to what to say.

So there really were people with astonishing talents in this world.

In the past, when Shen Qi heard that the autism patients had shocking intelligence, she did not believe it.

This was because her brother had been so stiff since he was young. Even her teacher had said that his intelligence was slightly lower than that of a normal person, so she was unable to understand other people's words.

From the looks of it, it wasn't that his brother's intelligence was low, but that his intelligence was extraordinary.

The reason why he acted as if he didn't understand what others were saying wasn't because he didn't understand, but because he didn't want to listen!

He had always been immersed in his own world, entertaining himself with fun. Even Shen Qi never realized that his intellect was so heaven-defying.

These few years, due to the timely treatment, his autism had already received relief.

At least, his world already contained Shen Qi.

Shen Qi didn't know what to say when she heard today's discovery, so she could only stutter: "Big brother, how about you stay here from now on?"

"Is the Xiao Qi here?" Shen Lu stared fixedly at Shen Qi.

Shen Qi thought, if she left him here alone, she didn't know what would happen. In any case, at the villa, her so-called husband would not go there.

It didn't matter where he lived anymore.

Thinking about that, Shen Qi nodded her head and said: "Of course, we are family, of course we live together."

This house was originally used to bury his and Zhan Bo's memories, he never thought that they would really have to live here!

Shen Qi calculated in her heart that she still had to go to the villa and bring the food there everyday in order to save some money.

Hearing Shen Qi's words, Shen Lu laughed happily.

As long as Xiao Qi was here, Shen Lu would be very happy.

Shen Qi sighed and said, "Are you hungry? Shall I order takeout for you? "

Shen Lu shook his head to show that he was not hungry.

Shen Qi still crawled up from the ground, and looked around the kitchen to see if there was anything to eat.

It was a pity that no one lived here all this time. There was really nothing to eat here anymore.

Shen Qi looked at the time, and it was not too late yet. She suddenly said to Shen Lu: "Big brother, wait for me at home for a while, I'm going out to buy some food. I'll cook for you tomorrow morning, okay?"

Shen Lu nodded happily.

Shen Qi picked up her wallet, locked the door, and then left the apartment.

Chapter 32 Lack of money

Downstairs, there was a convenience store that was open twenty-four hours a day.

Shen Qi bought a bunch of things, and also bought some daily necessities for herself and Shen Lu.

When he paid the bill, Shen Qi just realised that after paying the rent for a year with his salary this month, he really didn't have much money left.

Just as he was about to carry the things upstairs, his phone suddenly rang. Shen Qi picked up the phone and saw that it was a message from his brother's doctor.

Seeing the tens of thousands of fees, Shen Qi suddenly had a headache.

He could have asked the Shen family for this money, but now that he brought his brother out, the Shen family could openly refuse to pay.

Shen Qi suddenly understood. She finally understood why Shen Yin Yin wanted to provoke her brother today.

It was probably due to this idea.

Since he had already married in place of Shen Yin Yin, they did not want to shoulder the burden of their big brother anymore. They simply forced him to bring their big brother and leave the Shen family.

This time, he had to leave, not for the Shen family to chase him away.

The Shen family had even more reason to refuse to pay.

After figuring out Shen Yin Yin's thoughts, Shen Qi couldn't help but laugh bitterly.

What should he do?

What would he use to pay for his brother's treatment next month?

When he returned to the apartment with his stuff, he saw his brother's happy expression, and saw that he was actually enjoying the book he bought during his time of debauchery, Shen Qi's heart became even more complicated.

If he hadn't known that his brother was so smart, perhaps he would have considered temporarily stopping the treatment and waiting until he had money to continue.

But now ...

How could it be interrupted?

Her brother was obviously so smart and so outstanding. It was not easy to cure him to such an extent, how could he just give up halfway?

Shen Qi looked at her brother's clear and bright eyes, and the bottom of her heart once again wavered.

What should he do?

Where did you get the money?

That's right, didn't Brother know Shen Gang's password for the safe?

Why don't I sneak back and get some money from the Shen family?

No, no!

He couldn't do that!

He definitely could not afford to cause any ruckus in the Shen family!

Shen Qi suddenly hated herself.

If he hadn't been deceived by his mother at that time and given all his salary to her, he wouldn't have ended up like this now!

All the money he had on him right now was not even a fraction of the treatment fees.

What should he do?

Shen Qi stood in the kitchen in a daze, the vegetable leaves in her hands were all ripped off and she did not even notice.

Just then, his phone rang again. Shen Qi picked it up and saw another message.

However, this message was sent by He Yi Ning: "At ten in the morning tomorrow, He's Consortium's Office will accompany you to a work meal, deducting two hundred thousand worth of debts."

Shen Qi was startled, and a thought suddenly popped into her mind: should I become his professional stylist, and receive an advance salary from him?

When he thought about this, Shen Qi was so shocked that his phone almost fell to the ground.

No, no.

He was determined to not get involved with the people of the He Family!

One year later, after he divorced the young master of the He Family, he would leave this place completely! Take your big brother and fly far away!

Shen Lu looked at Shen Qi blankly and called out, "Xiao Qi ..."

Although Shen Qi didn't say anything, Shen Lu was still extremely sensitive to the situation. "Xiao Qi, you're angry ..."

Shen Qi forced a smile: "Nope!"

"Xiao Qi, you liar, this is bad." Shen Lu looked at Shen Qi with a serious expression.

Seeing his brother's serious face, Shen Qi hurried to pinch Shen Lu's face.

"No, I'm thinking about work. You know, when I become a stylist, I have to face a lot of customers. Some of them are very crafty, so I need to spend a lot of effort to make them." Shen Qi changed the topic: "Do you understand this book? What part of the story are you looking at? "

"Qin Ji'." Shen Lu replied obediently.

"That's great! I'll bring you other books as well, okay?" Shen Qi tried his best to divert Shen Lu's attention.

"Alright." Shen Lu obediently answered.

Shen Qi cooked dinner, and the two of them ate together.

Shen Qi cleaned up the bedroom and let Shen Lu rest. She spent the night casually on the sofa in the living room, and would think of a way to clean up the storage room tomorrow.

If the things in the storage room were put away, a small bed would be placed down as well.

Early morning of the second day, Shen Qi carried her makeup kit and directly went to He's Consortium.

Standing under the He's Consortium's main building, Shen Qi couldn't help but inhale a breath of cold air.

The He's Consortium's headquarters was a three mother business office building that covered more than twenty acres of land.

Each floor had more than forty floors.

The pavilion in the middle was the office of He's Consortium.

There was also a small private park around the two adjacent buildings, a place for employees to rest and relax during their spare time.

Having three super office buildings and a private garden in a place like H City was no longer just a symbol of wealth.

One had to know that this piece of land was the same as the Earth King back in the day.

After the He Family won the land with a bid of five billion, the headquarters of the He's Consortium was built.

From then on, he would be able to see the wealth of the He's Consortium!

Shen Qi came to the front desk and said: "I have an appointment with Director He, I'm his stylist."

The receptionist must have called, hearing Shen Qi's words, she immediately said: "CEO is on the forty-eighth floor, after getting out of the elevator, turn left, and that's the first office."

After Shen Qi expressed her thanks, he carried her bag and went up.

Once Shen Qi left, the front desk started shouting like crazy in the company group: “Oh my god! CEO actually called a female stylist up! This is unbelievable! “

The moment this message was released, the entire company group exploded!

Countless people in the group wailed: “How is this possible? CEO has never been close to a woman! Even I have to suspect that CEO wants to lose his sleeve ... “

“What kind of international joke is this!?” Why would CEO look for a female stylist? No, I choose IChooseDogLeading! “

“However, I seem to have seen the CEO and a woman walking very close last time outside. With that said, I remember. This female stylist is very thin, with long black hair and a very delicate face, isn’t she? “

The front desk immediately sent a message: “Right, right, right. It looks pretty pure with no makeup at all. Its skin is so good that it makes people jealous!”

There was another earthquake in the group, causing countless people to wail in unison.

Shen Qi was completely unaware of these things. Following the instructions from the front desk, she finally arrived at He Yi Ning’s office.

He Yi Ning had several offices, and each Branch had one.

In fact, He Yi Ning rarely came to the headquarters’ office.

Because the matters of the headquarters were specially sent to He Yi Ning by the Chief Specialist.

On the contrary, he frequented Branch’s office purely because Branch’s office was closer to his own.

This was the first time Shen Qi stepped foot into such a luxurious office, and the moment she entered the elevator, she had the feeling that Grandma Liu was entering a big garden.

Chapter 33 Memory, Error

There was no choice, He's Consortium was really too rich.

Everything here was the best.

Even the employee's work clothes are custom-made by the international line brand BOSS.

No wonder why He Yi Ning's clothes were so expensive, no wonder he said that the cost of a single shirt was five hundred thousand.

Shen Qi followed the instructions from the front desk and looked for He Yi Ning's office.

It was indeed easy to find.

This was because on the forty-eighth floor, other than the indoor golf and entertainment rooms, there was only He Yi Ning's CEO office.

Shen Qi stood outside and knocked on the door. The assistant Xiaochun immediately came over and said with a smile: "Miss Shen is here, CEO is inside."

Shen Qi replied a little awkwardly: "Thank you."

Shen Qi followed Xiaochun in, and looked up. As a stylist, she had to say, He Yi Ning's taste was truly picky.

The office was simple and grand, luxurious yet not extravagant.

His identity was perfect.

When Shen Qi walked in, He Yi Ning was sitting in front of the desk and quickly signing his name.

Several middle management staff stood respectfully by the side.

This was the first time Shen Qi saw him working.

Her phoenix-like eyes slightly frowned. She did not get angry, but instead, displayed her might.

The domineering aura of demonification.

Shen Qi stood obediently by the side with her bag.

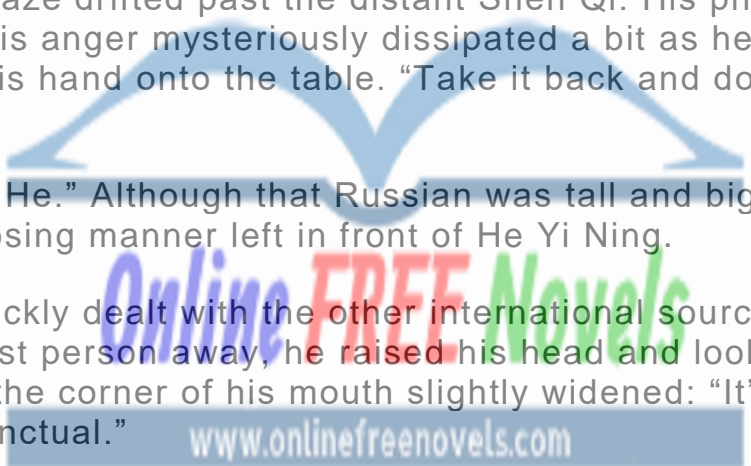

It is said that serious people are the most beautiful, this point does not distinguish between men and women.

He Yi Ning's gaze stopped on a document and his brows furrowed even more. He raised his eyes slightly and spoke in Russian at a steady pace: "Is this how efficient you are? I'm handing this line to you, not for you to secure the city. If you don't get 2 per cent year-on-year this quarter, you can resign. "

The middle manager stood there sweating profusely and explained in Russian, "Director He, please give me one more chance. I will not let you down. "

He Yi Ning's gaze drifted past the distant Shen Qi. His phoenix eyes flashed, and his anger mysteriously dissipated a bit as he threw the document in his hand onto the table. "Take it back and do it again. One last chance. "

"Yes, Director He." Although that Russian was tall and big, he didn't have any imposing manner left in front of He Yi Ning.

He Yi Ning quickly dealt with the other international sources. After sending the last person away, he raised his head and looked towards Shen Qi, and the corner of his mouth slightly widened: "It's still considered punctual."

Shen Qi lowered his head slightly: "I will immediately help you create your model."

"No rush." He Yi Ning said, "Today's occasion is not that... It doesn't need to be formal. Help me match it with a set of clothes. The locker room is inside. "

Shen Qi immediately nodded in agreement.

Xiaochun brought Shen Qi in to choose clothes, while the other assistants looked at each other as if they had seen a ghost.

Apart from the few of them, no one was allowed to enter CEO's dressing room!

Forget about the locker room, even in this CEO office, the few of them took turns cleaning it.

The cleaners didn't even have the right to go up to this level.

However, as Chief Specialist s, they still understood the rules and regulations very well.

It was clear that this stylist was special to the CEO.

Shen Qi asked Xiaochun about the noon meeting, and after confirming it was only a small private gathering, she immediately chose a set of semi-formal clothes that best matched his skin color.

All of the clothes in He Yi Ning's office were custom-made. All he needed to do was choose a style and color.

After Shen Qi finished picking, he immediately pointed to another row and said: "These are your clothes, please choose whatever you want."

"Mine?" Shen Qi was startled.

"Yes, you are CEO's companion today at noon." Xiaochun replied with a smile.

Shen Qi was drowsy for a long time as she watched Xiaochun leave the locker room.

Opening the closet, he found a row of women's clothing in it.

However, these clothes are not custom-made, they are the next few big international brands in the new season.

Shen Qi's eyes shook a little, and quickly recovered her senses. According to He Yi Ning's clothes today, she picked out a new model that belonged to Burberry.

Shen Qi quickly changed her clothes. As the stylist, she was extremely familiar with her own body and facial features. She didn't spend too much time, and had already finished changing her appearance in just a few minutes.

With the flower bud s slightly messy head, Barbary s classic grid, the same line of jewelry and elegant perfume, without using too much cosmetics, he only drew his own line of sight, swept his cheeks a little, and lit his lips, causing Shen Qi to instantly turn into a pure female university student.

This was not a very formal occasion, but something similar to a family gathering.

Therefore, the position that Shen Qi set herself was that of youth and mischievousness.

When Shen Qi came out of the locker room, she suddenly glanced at Shen Qi and froze.

An inexplicable sound resounded crazily from the bottom of his heart: "It's her! It must be her! "

Her phoenix eyes instantly became incomparably deep.

He remembered back then, she had also been like this, with her disheveled flower bud hair, wearing Burberry's little skirt, sweetly smiling as she looked at him ...

The Shen Qi in front of her and the her in her memories, were overlapping little by little ...

For the first time, He Yi Ning was unable to control the fire in his eyes.

He Yi Ning opened his mouth, he almost wanted to shout out that name.

Just then, Shen Qi suddenly spoke out: "Director He, is my body suitable?"

Shen Qi's words were like a bucket of cold water poured over He Yi Ning's head.

He Yi Ning quickly turned away.

Is he crazy?

He actually thought that Shen Qi was her?

What a joke!

She's not called Shen Qi at all!

This was just a coincidence!

When Shen Qi saw He Yi Ning's expression suddenly become unsightly, she thought that He Yi Ning did not like his look and immediately said, "I will change it immediately."

Without waiting for Shen Qi to turn around, He Yi Ning suddenly spoke: "No need, this set is very good."

Shen Qi could only stand in place and stutter: "Then ... Good. Director He, please sit down. I will help you with the modeling. "

He Yi Ning raised his eyes, gave Shen Qi a deep glance, and then turned to sit on a chair.

Shen Qi opened up her makeup bag and opened up a new bottle of Barbary Ley's male perfume. This was the same type as the perfume on her body, male and female.

When the two scents touch, a new taste experience is formed.

This was one of the reasons why Shen Qi liked Burberry.

"Who's in your family?" He Yi Ning finally asked.

"An older brother, a younger sister, father's business, mother's housewife." Shen Qi replied indifferently.

She never liked to talk too much about strangers.

A look of disappointment flashed past He Yi Ning's eyes.

It really wasn't her!

She has no sister!

And his father had committed suicide.

He Yi Ning felt that he must be crazy.

He actually thought that Shen Qi would be ...

How is this possible?

Just as Shen Qi was about to fix He Yi Ning's hair, the phone suddenly rang.

"Can I take the call first?" Shen Qi asked.

"Yes." A faint emotionless response.

Shen Qi immediately turned around and picked up the call: "Hello? Doctor, can you take a moment? I don't have that much money on me right now ... "

Chapter 34 Lending money

When Shen Qi was making the call, her other hand was fidgeting as she touched her earlobe. She bit his lips tightly as if they had just happened to be captured by He Yi Ning.

He Yi Ning couldn't hear what Shen Qi was saying clearly, but she could clearly see his expression.

Did she meet with some trouble?

He Yi Ning suddenly had a wish, would this little thing take the initiative to ask for his help when encountering difficulties?

After finishing the call, Shen Qi first took a deep breath, and gathered all of her negative emotions before she turned to face He Yi Ning.

Shen Qi continued her previous work, but did not take the initiative to ask for He Yi Ning's help.

This made He Yi Ning inexplicably feel defeated.

Why did the other girls all want to stick close to him like crazy, while this woman was always avoiding him ...

After Shen Qi fixed her hair, he slightly lowered her head and both of them looked at each other in the mirror.

"You look beautiful today." He Yi Ning said in a low voice.

Shen Qi was slightly startled. “Ah ... “Thank you.”

Shen Qi quickly turned her gaze away, not daring to look at He Yi Ning again.

Being praised by a male god with such a peak-level beauty, even if Shen Qi didn't have any feelings for He Yi Ning, he still couldn't help but feel agitated in the bottom of her heart.

Assistant Xiao Xia nudged Xiaochun with his arm, “Hey, have you noticed that her interactions with CEO are very special?”

The other two assistants also nodded, “It's not just special, it's very special. In the past, CEO never had a good face towards women who approached him on their own accord! “

“Because the Miss Shen is not the woman who comes over on her own accord.” Xiaochun glanced at the other three assistants: “Is the matter with CEO something you guys can also discuss?”

The other three people touched their noses and stopped talking.

Just as Shen Qi was about to get up, she suddenly pointed at a box on the table and said: “Pick one that you like.”

“Huh?” Shen Qi was startled, then turned her gaze to the box on the table.

Shen Qi subconsciously reached out to open the box.

In the box lay three rows of very fine and beautiful earrings.

“This is a new jewel under the He's Consortium. There is no official product on the outside. Pick one, you're too modest.” He Yi Ning said in a flat tone: “Come with me to the gathering, don't be so poor.”

Shen Qi's face instantly flushed red.

The money she earned was all spent on her family, the most valuable thing on her was still something that Zhan Bo gifted her back then.

She had all those things sealed away, so she had nothing to replace them except her shirt and the cowboy.

Shen Qi knew that this was only a temporary loan and she would still have to repay the money after using it. Thus, she did not refuse and picked out a pair of Jade Seal's earrings from within the pile of bright earrings.

Shen Qi knew that although the pair of earrings were small, the price had already exceeded hundreds of thousands of yuan.

She didn't dare to lose it, so she carefully put it on, making sure it was firm before letting go.

"You are really good at matching." He Yi Ning stood up: "Let's go, it's about time."

After saying this, He Yi Ning immediately looked towards Shen Qi.

Shen Qi immediately stood to the side, maintaining a distance of one meter.

It wasn't far, nor was it near. It was the safest distance.

Her phoenix-like eyes flashed slightly as a bright light flowed within them. It seemed as if there was a bit of a smile hidden within.

He Yi Ning walked in front, and Shen Qi followed behind him.

After walking two steps, He Yi Ning suddenly stopped, and sighed: "Shen Qi, you are my female companion, not my assistant."

Shen Qi's eyelashes trembled as she responded in a low voice, "Ah ...
"Yes."

He Yi Ning took the initiative to bend his arm, causing his eyes to widen and blurt out: "Do we have to do this here?"

When the few people from Xiaochun heard Shen Qi's words, they could not help but burst into laughter.

He Yi Ning raised his eyebrows and looked at Shen Qi. Then, Shen Qi took two steps forward, carefully passed through the crook of He Yi Ning's arm, and held onto his arm.

Beneath the thin layer of clothing, He Yi Ning's firm arms transmitted a sense of security to Shen Qi.

He Yi Ning brought Shen Qi down the elevator. When they passed the lobby of the first floor, all of the employees were petrified!

Ah ... I'm going to die!

CEO actually had a female companion!

Shen Qi felt that her scalp was going to turn hard.

Those people's gazes were simply as sharp as knives and arrows. They wished that they could turn themselves into a hornet's nest.

He Yi Ning, oh He Yi Ning, this is simply the cause of the war!

An Aston Martin was parked downstairs.

Shen Qi realized that every time she saw He Yi Ning, she would change to a different sports car.

Depending on the occasion and the clothes, it's a different sports car.

The clothes that Shen Qi had picked for him today was for a yuppie, so this Aston Martin was also a classic.

Shen Qi could not help but steal a glance at He Yi Ning.

Why did she keep having the illusion that the reason He Yi Ning chose Aston Martin today was because she was wearing Burberry clothing?

After Xiaochun respectfully opened the carriage door for He Yi Ning, he raised his hand and helped Shen Qi into the carriage.

After Shen Qi got on the carriage, she held onto her phone and sent a message without a word.

One after another.

However, every message was like a mud bull entering the sea and no response was forthcoming.

Shen Qi looked outside the car in a daze. Why was it so hard to borrow money these days?

She had borrowed all the people she could borrow, but no one had a response.

On the phone, the doctor said that Shen Lu's autism had achieved a temporary improvement.

As long as he followed up the treatment, he had a high chance of regaining his normal life.

Last night, Shen Qi unexpectedly found out that her brother's intelligence was extraordinary, and now that she heard the doctor say that ...

Shen Qi felt that she was truly at a loss on what to do.

Where could he find so much money?

Just now, she had tried to call Mrs. Shen, but when Mrs. Shen saw that it was her number, she immediately hung up.

Obviously, the Mrs. Shen would not give her any more support.

What should he do?

Would he really have to watch his brother fall into darkness?

Even though He Yi Ning had been quietly driving the car, he was still able to discern something from the sides of Shen Qi's frustrated and conflicted expression from time to time.

"Are you in need of money?" He Yi Ning said indifferently.

Shen Qi instantly regained her senses and laughed with difficulty, "Ah ... Yes. I won't be able to pay back the money I owe you for now. "

He Yi Ning's eyes flashed a trace of anger. When did he want her to return the money ...

"I mean ..." He Yi Ning's good-looking eyebrows instantly furrowed: Do you need me to lend you some money?

"No!" Shen Qi subconsciously rejected on the spot, and immediately tried to salvage the situation. "Ah ... "I mean, I owe you enough. I can't trouble you anymore!"

Shen Qi really wanted to reject her.

But when her eyes fell on the box, she knew she could not refuse.

Because she really needed the money.

No matter how unpleasant He Yi Ning's words were, he had still helped him.

Shen Qi thanked He Yi Ning sincerely. "Thank you, Director He. I'll work hard. to try to pay off all the debts as soon as possible. "

"Alright, put away your depressed expression. We're almost there." He Yi Ning continued to drive.

Shen Qi held onto the small box, feeling relaxed.

It had to be said that this money really did solve the urgent problem.

He had to work outside all day and night, so he couldn't take care of his brother at home.

With this money, not only would he be able to pay the treatment fee to his brother, he would also be able to get a babysitter to take care of him during the day.

Although there was one more debt...

However, he was right. To him, more debts did not hurt. More lice did not itch.

In the following days, he would have to earn money with all his might!

Thinking of this, the gloomy expression on Shen Qi's face gradually dissipated, and her eyes gradually became clear.

When He Yi Ning saw Shen Qi's relieved expression from the rear-view mirror, the corner of her eye raised into a faint smile.

Sure enough, after ten minutes, Aston Martin stopped in front of a villa with a typical Western European theme.

The security guard at the entrance only glanced at the license plate, before respectfully opening the door and letting them in.

The moment Shen Qi entered the door, she became indescribably nervous.

Although she served the upper class, she had never attended such a luxurious party before.

Since young, apart from studying, she had always taken care of her brother at home.

Shen Yin Yin represented the face of the Shen Family and participated in all sorts of occasions.

Mrs. Shen and Shen Gang would never mention Shen Qi. So much so that no one knew that the Shen family still had a daughter called Shen Qi.

Even the servants of the Shen family gave and Shen Lu face, but the people outside thought that Shen Yin Yin was the only daughter.

After getting off the carriage, Shen Qi held He Yi Ning's arm and slowly walked in.

The moment the door was opened, Shen Qi saw the scene in front of him.

Although this was only a small private gathering, there seemed to be a lot of beauties present today.

In addition, there were quite a few beauties that surrounded a handsome man with peach blossom eyes.

There were two twins sitting on the seat beside him. Their facial features were exquisite, almost like a painting. It was hard to tell them apart.

These three people were surrounded by a lot of beautiful women, and they seemed to be very happy about it.

When they saw He Yi Ning bringing Shen Qi over, they immediately gaped in shock.

“Good boy, am I seeing things? Yi Ning actually brought a woman out here? ” The man with peach blossom eyes shouted exaggeratedly: “Fan Sheng, Fan Li, I'm not seeing things right?”

The pair of twins also showed an expression of disbelief, “Our eyes were damaged by 10,000 points of damage.”

When He Yi Ning saw those girls, he immediately frowned and said, “All of you, go down!”

The group of women turned to look at the man with the peach blossom eyes. Seeing him nod his head, they then unwillingly retreated.

Shen Qi felt that the air became much fresher in an instant.

“Yi Ning, don’t you want to introduce us?” The man with peach blossom eyes looked at Shen Qi with interest: “Which university did you just find this school beauty from? “It’s really pure.”

He Yi Ning pointed to the man with the peach blossom eyes and said to Shen Qi: “His name is Wen Yi Bo, his grandfather is a British general with a quarter of his British bloodline. The two of them were Fan Sheng, Fan Li, the twins, young master of Vincent’s Entertainment’s company. They were my best friends.”

After introducing the three of them, he introduced them to the others: “She is Shen Qi.”

There was no restatement, only these four words.

But because of these four words, the three men present immediately looked at Shen Qi with playful eyes for a long time.

Shen Qi greeted them with slight unease: “Hello, my name is Shen Qi, I am ...”

Without waiting for Shen Qi to finish speaking, He Yi Ning immediately said: “Alright, they only need to know your name. There is no need to tell them anything else! They already have enough women. “

Shen Qi immediately flushed red.

She didn’t mean that!

Fan Sheng said while beaming: “Sit down! This is the first time Yi Ning has brought a girl to us. “

Shen Qi opened her mouth, wanting to explain something.

But the other side didn't say anything. How was he going to explain himself?

He Yi Ning, however, quickly took over the conversation and said, "You all didn't call me over to discuss the matter of my female companion, right? Oh right, Wen Yi Bo, you said on the phone that you want to eat the Northwest Mining Area? How much certainty do you have? "

Speaking of the important matter, Wen Yi Bo had indeed become more serious, and immediately said: "The chance is not too high, which is why I called all of you over. Well, would you like to butt in? The Northwest Mining Area had suffered a great loss in recent years, and the equipment inside had aged severely. The company had been on a whim for a long time. So I'm going to spend five billion pounds on this business. But if my dad doesn't give me that much money, my grandpa won't be able to help. "

Fan Li frowned, "Northwest mining area? This business is really hard to swallow. I heard from my dad that a lot of people in this company seem to have their eyes on it. "

Wen Yi Bo clapped his hands and said: "That's why I wanted to ask Yi Ning for help! None of us can compare to Yi Ning in wealth. 5 billion was a problem for us, but it was nothing for Yi Ning. Isn't that so, Shen Qi? "

After Wen Yi Bo finished his serious business, he did not forget to ask Shen Qi again with an innocent look.

Listening to them talk about proper matters, Shen Qi was planning to find an excuse to hide in a corner when he was suddenly asked by Wen Yi Bo.

"Ah ..." Shen Qi looked at them blankly: "Sorry, I don't understand these things."

"Then what do you know?" Wen Yi Bo did not seem to plan on letting Shen Qi go, and continued to ask.

Shen Qi immediately turned and look at He Yi Ning.
